

MOTION FROM STEVE WATKINS

That the Labour Party and the Cooperative Party should invite the Green Party to join the electoral association that currently exists between those two parties, on the basis of the Green Party signing the Cheltenham Agreement. The parties should not be unwilling to consider modifications of the Cheltenham Agreement to achieve this objective.

ACTION

We should pursue trade union Support for this proposal through the appropriate mechanisms.

We should submit this proposal to CLPs to which we are affiliated.

We should discuss this matter with other socialist societies, starting with SERA
